

5th Digital History in Sweden Conference

14–15 November 2022

The Old Bishop's House

Biskopsgatan 1
223 62 Lund

Monday 14 November

9.00–9.30 Registration

9.30–9.45 Welcome

Marie Cronqvist, Kajsa Weber & Sune Bechmann Pedersen (Lund University)

9.45–11.00 Keynote I

Ian Milligan (University of Waterloo)

Navigating Digital Abundance

The Transformation of Historical Research in the Digital Age

11.00–11.20 Coffee break

11.20–12.20 Session 1

Chair Anna Nilsson Hammar (Lund University)

Karoline Liv Vildlyng (Royal Danish Library, Aarhus)

Abundance for all? Gender inclusion and digital methods in the digital age

Peter Gladoic Håkansson (Malmö University), Tobias Karlsson (Lund University) & Matti La Mela (Uppsala University)

Tracing the digital footprints of transient occupations: Job ads to capture the work of young men and women, 1870–1990

Jessica Enevold (Lund University)

House dreams for sale: Realtors, renovation and sustainability issues on Hemnet

12.20–13.30 Lunch at Biskopshuset

13.30–14.30 Session 2 (parallel)

Session 2a (2nd floor, on site only)

Chair Björn Lundberg (Lund University)

Helene Castenbrandt (Lund University)

The challenge of handling causes of death in large-scale historical databases

Johan Jarlbrink (Umeå University), Måns Magnusson (Uppsala University), Fredrik Norén (Umeå University) & Väinö Yrjänäinen (Uppsala University)

Tracing the media logic in Swedish parliamentary speeches, 1920–2020

Mats Fridlund, Daniel Brodén, Leif-Jöran Olsson, Magnus P. Ängsal & Patrik Öhberg (University of Gothenburg)

Computing the politics of terror: Actant Networks in Swedish Parliamentary Debate on Terrorism, 1971–1975

Session 2b (3rd floor, hybrid)

Chair Joanna Doona (Lund University)

Kristin Mikalsen (Karlstad University)

Social media and historical memory research – ontological and epistemological perspectives

Daniela Linkevicius de Andrade (University of Brasília) & Demival Vasques Filho (Leibniz Institute of European History)

Moderation and authority-building process: the dynamics of knowledge creation on history subreddits

Victor Harbo Johnston & Helle Strandgaard Jensen (Aarhus University)

Muppet shorthand: The political history of Sesame Street on Twitter

14.30–14.45 Short break

14.45–15.30 Session 3 (parallel)

Session 3a (2nd floor, on site only)

Chair Marie Cronqvist (Lund University)

Pelle Snickars (Lund University), Emil Stjernholm (Lund University) & Johan Malmstedt (Umeå University)

Presentation of Lychnos 2022 – an annual Swedish history of ideas publication – with digital history as a special theme.

Session 3b (3rd floor, hybrid)

Chair Joanna Doona (Lund University)

Erik Edoff (Umeå University), Patrik Lundell (Örebro University), Jani Marjanen (University of Helsinki), Petri Paju (University of Turku), Heli Rentala (University of Turku) & Hannu Salmi (University of Turku)

Information flows across the Baltic Sea in the long nineteenth century:
A book project in progress

Chris Haffenden (KBLab)

Topic modelling made easier with BERTopic

15.30–16.00 Coffee break

16.00–17.00 Session 4

Chair Rosanna Farbøl (Lund University)

Benjamin G. Martin (Uppsala University)

Negotiating the Culture Concept at UNESCO, 1966–1982:
Global conceptual history through digital text analysis

Haakon A. Ikonomou (University of Copenhagen)

Scalar Thinking: About networks, social worlds and biographies in international organizations

Christa Shusko (Linnaeus University)

Nääs networks: Charting slöjd networks using undigitized materials

18.00–19.00 Apéritif at Biskopshuset

19.00–21.00 Dinner at Biskopshuset

Tuesday 15 November

9.30–10.35 Session 5

Chair Karin Zackari (Lund University)

Rachel Pierce (Swedish National Library for Gender Studies)

Representation in the Archive(s): Reading the physical and digital archives together

Ale Pålsson & Victor Wilson (Uppsala University)

The lost archive of Saint-Barthélemy: Digital re-integration of a colonial past

Sebastian Graf (Lund University)

Remembering an unfolding war: Ukrainian virtual museums in times of connectivity

Anita Lucchesi (University of Luxembourg)

Tropy: Say goodbye to IMG_5261.JPG and IMG_5262.JPG, and say hello to your sources

10.35–11.00 Coffee break

11.00–12.15 Keynote II

Sara Ellis Nilsson (Linnaeus University)

Enriching medieval cultural heritage through digitization:
Abundance, complexity and nuance

12.15–13.30 Lunch at Biskopshuset

13.30–14.30 Session 6

Chair Johan Östling (Lund University)

Magnus Lindholm Nielsen & Andreas Viftrup (Aarhus University)

What to do with ten million articles?

Matti La Mela & Ekta Vats (Uppsala University)

Automatic classification of historical texts using a BERT model:

News about wild berries, 1860–1910

Daniel Brodén, Michael Azar, Mats Fridlund & Victor Wählstrand
Skärström (University of Gothenburg)

The cultural imaginary of terrorism:

Close and distant readings of political terror in cold war Sweden

14.30–14.40 Short break

14.40–15.00 Concluding remarks